Plaintiff Wright Motion IN Objection To
The Honorable Charles S. Coady Order
ON Motion

I Richard Wayne Wright, Sr., Plaintiff, Pro-Se., comes now before this Honorable Court in objection to the Chief United States Magistrate Judge, the Honorable Charles S. Coady order on Motion pass down on April 21, 2006 which denied Plaintiff Motion to Amend (Court Doc No. 159), Plaintiff Wright present suffering from injuries he encounter because defendants are exercising their power in many abusive forms. Plaintiff Wright is under injustice which stems from defendant acts of retaliation from defendants and defendant's agents, it appears that this series of revengeful acts shall be as long as plaintiff is under ~~their~~ power and until a higher power shall address this abusive activity exhibit upon plaintiff and implement ~~its~~ power to ~~Curve~~ defendants wrongful acts. This Honorable Court has labeled these acts demonstrate to cause and causing plaintiff present harm as "adverse action" that is an understatement. These acts of inflicting punishment upon plaintiff through segregation and by ~~them~~ writing disciplinary after disciplinary are being done maliciously and vindictively to send plaintiff to a higher level camp/prison. At such prison where the majority of the inmates are subjected to hopeless conditions, these inmates are easier persuaded and coerced to hurt plaintiff for ~~them~~ for a price. As defendant Seals had attempted to do in August 2004 until plaintiff wrote the warden at Bullock Correctional Facility and then defendant Seals deterred from that recommendation. This was what defendant Seals first threaten plaintiff with at the progress review hearing in August 20, 2004. (See Exhibit one(I)). Now since plaintiff appealed defendant Seals recommendation
